

India Sanitation trends by wealth quintiles (Source: UNICEF India)

India

India provided more than 166 million people with access to sanitation since 1995. That is more people than the population of Japan and the Canada combined!

Progress was, however, highly inequitable: the poorest households hardly benefitted